Spirits Turpentine—The market for this article has been unsettled since our last review, and an advance of 1 a 1½ cent has taken place. There was considerable animation manifestal animation fested in the market on Monday, but since then it has ruled quiet. The sales for the week reach 2,755 bbls., as follows : Monday 62 bbls. at 39 cents per gallon. Do..... 2,375 " 39½ "

Tuesday.... 160 " 39½ Wednesday... 158 " 40 No sales this morning, and market quiet; at the time closing our report 39 cents is the highest figure offered. Rosin.-In the market for Common we notice considerable activity throughout the week just ended, and the price has 941 a 941 for the account. advanced fully 10 cents, closing at $1.15 for large size bbls. of 310 lbs. The transactions for the week foot up 22,800

bbls., viz: Bbls. Small size. Mixed Size. Monday, Wednesday 500.... 110
For No. 1 there has also existed a fair enquiry from buyers during the week, with small receipts, and about 1,500 bbls. have changed hands at $2.75, $2.87\(\frac{1}{2}\) $3, $3.25, a $4.00 per bbl., according to quality.

TAR-Has been in moderate enquiry, but as the receipts done. The sales comprise only 220 bbls. at $1 50 per bbl. On Monday, a lot of 1,400 barrels, in shipping order, was BEEF CATTLE AND SHEEP-Fair supply in butcher's hands, and market dull. A small drove of good quality grass fatted

5 a 5h cents. Only a small lot of Sheep brought in this week and sold at $1 75 each for extra ;-we quote at $1 50 a $1 75, ascording to quality.

Coffee-Nothing doing worthy of note. The stock on market is fair, and demand confined to retailers. Sales from quested to come forward and make payment without delay, store in the small way at prices ranging within quotations, and all persons having claims against them, will present the as in quality. See table.

Corron-We notice a fair demand existing for this arti

The property to persons wishing to purchase all or any portion of market, with a fair demand from retailers. We quote from the granaries at 80 cents per bushel, in quantities to suit.

EMPTY BARRELS—We have no change to notice in the market for Spirits Turpentine barrels. Very few arriving, and the stock is exceedingly light. We note a fair enquiry for good quality second hand ones, with small sales at $1.872 each, and $2 for new. FISH—Since our last review the market has ruled quite dull for all kinds, and very little has been done. We note the receipt of about 581 bbls. Mullets; of which 20 do. sold Friday at $6 75; 122 do. on Monday at $6; and this (Wednesday) morning 281 do. at $5 per bbl., subject to inspection

-- leaving 158 bbls. on market unsold. For store rates of other descriptions we refer to our table. FLOUR-We have no material alteration to notice in the market for this article, and in consequence of the limited demand but few transactions have taken place. The receipts per railroad have been quite small, and the supply in first hands has become somewhat reduced; it may, however be considered fully fair for present purposes. The operations for the week have been principally of small lots State brands from store at $7 for superfine, and $7 50 a $7 75 per bbl. for family; some parcels are held for higher rates, and we quote cross at $6 25, fine $6 50, superfine $7 a $7 25, extra $7 25 a $7 50, and family $7 50 a $7 75, according to quantity.

Grain—For Corn the market has ruled firm since our last, but owing to the limited arrivals very little has been done. The receipts comprise only one cargo of 1,900 bushels (on Wednesday) from Hyde county, which was taken by Mullets, it is 150 yards long, 20 feet in the bunt, and 7 feet at each end, double lined, corked and leaded, made of 20 cord In this article we hear of no receipts during the past week, and consequently there has been nothing done except in the retail way. There is a full supply in dealers hands, and the market is dull. Last sale from vessel was at 35 cents per bushel.

White Beans—None on market. See table for quotations, as in quality.——PEAS—Ne late receipts of Cow, and none on market with the exception of a small lot in dealers hands;—there is a fair enquiry for them, and parcels dealers hands;—there is a fair enquiry for them, and parcels would sell readily. We advance store rates, and quote at 90 cents a $1 per bushel, as in quantity and quality.—

RICE—The stock of clean in store is rather small, but fully fair for the demand of the trade West and the SPADES AND SHOVELS.—10 doz. Ames' make, for fair for the demand from the trade. almost if not entirely bare; sell from store at $3 50 per bbl Sweet have been brought in rather more freely, and we reduce our rates to $1 a $1 25 per bushel, according to quality. Provisions-The market for N. C. cured Bacon continues exceedingly dull, and there has been nothing done during the week except in the retail way. There is a fair stock in first hands, with little or no demand from retailers, and in the absence of sales worthy of note our quotations are nominal. See table. The stock of Western cured in store continues very good, and in consequence of the limited demand, the sales for the week have been in the small way at 121-a 127 cents for sides, and II a 114 cents per lb. for shoulders. as in quality ;-the market rules very dull for sugar cured hams, with a good supply in first hands. No sales; held at 13 a 134 cents per ib. LARD-We have no change to notice in prices since our last review The receipts of N. C. make are confined to small lots, and not sufficient for the demand from retailers. Parcels are generally taken on arrival at 15 cents in bbls., and 15 a 16 cents per lb. in kegs. Western is also in light stock, and readily brings 15 cents in bbls. PORK-In the price of Northern Mess we note a shade advance for the week, caused by the favorable advices from other markets. There is a fair demand, with a moderate tock in store, and sales at $22 a $22 50 per bbl., as in quantity and quality.

SALT-The market is very well supplied with both Liverpool and Alum, and quotations of the former have given way a shade. The receipts coastwise for the week comprise 2,750 sacks Liverpool ground, of which 1,050 sacks sold at $1 05 per sack, 90 days; and 1,709 do. sold to arrive at $1 10. 90 days-the market closing dull at lowest figure No arrivals of Alum, but we note a fair stock of former receipts in store; held at 50 cents per bushel, in lots to suit.

Shingles-No change to make. Some few parcels received, and no sales made. Quotations nominal. See table. TIMBER-Has been brought in quite freely during the past week, and we notice rather more disposition on the part of millers to operate; market firm. Some 14@15 rafts have changed hands at prices ranging within classified figures.

FREIGHTS-To New York have improved a shade on rosin, and market firm. To Boston they have also advanced, but to Philadelphia have declined. There is a fair amount of country produce offering shipment, with very few vessels in port, and the market is firm at quoted rates. See table.
